As part of the ongoing Saturday Live! program at Central Library, Circus Manduhai will be performing in the Children's Room at Central Library at 11:15 a.m. on Saturday, January 29. Veterans of the Mongolian State Circus, Circus Manduhai offers a fast-moving, crowd-pleasing performance for young and old alike. Circus Manduhai's performances feature foot-juggling, hula-hooping, and other acts not often seen in the library! All Saturday Live! performances are free and all are welcome.

Saturday Live! at Central Library offers weekly children's entertainment every Saturday at 11:15 a.m. in Central Library's Children's Room. This literacy-based program selects performers for both their entertainment value and their ability to promote the joys of reading and libraries to young audiences. Families can enjoy a wide range of multicultural programming including puppetry, magic, live animals, storytelling, music, and much more. The Saturday Live! program is generously sponsored by a Cultural Star Grant from the City of Saint Paul. For more information about this or other Saturday Live!
